This catalogue is a guide to the songs that tend to work best for us in a live party band setting – giving you a feel for the kind of moments we love to create on the night. We'll always take your preferences into account when shaping the set, but the flow and energy of a live band means some songs naturally land better than others depending on the lineup.

You'll notice a couple of subtle markers throughout the list: Songs marked with * require a female vocalist Songs marked with  require a keyboard player

If either of those elements aren't part of your chosen band, we'll simply shape things around what works best – keeping everything feeling full, seamless and high-energy throughout.

JUST FOR FUN What was the first single you ever bought?
